The ordinary and the extraordinary ...

I was six years old when the first people landed on the moon and I have vague memories of watching the television reports. One of the many special moments that the astronauts later reflected upon was recounted by Buzz Aldrin.

Aldrin was a Christian and to mark the moment of being on the moon he took along a silver chalice, some wine and bread. These had been given by his church Pastor. Two and a half hours after landing, before preparations began for stepping out onto the moon's surface, Aldrin radioed to Earth:

“This is the LM pilot. I'd like to take this opportunity to ask every person listening in, whoever and wherever they may be, to pause for a moment and contemplate the events of the past few hours and to give thanks in his or her own way.” Aldrin quietly consumed the bread and wine of Holy Communion and read a line from the Bible “I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me, and I in him, will bear much fruit, for you can do nothing without me” (from the Gospel according to John, chapter 15, verse 5).

It is through the ordinary, in this case the bread and wine, that we can sometimes feel close to the extraordinary. During the incredible events of the lunar landing Aldrin felt connected with God through the action of consuming a small amount of bread and wine.

In our lives we do the same, it can be in doing what seem to be mundane tasks that we feel close to God. At St Margaret's we have recently started to explore the first of ten 'Holy Habits'. These habits are actions that we can do in our everyday lives. The first habit is Biblical Teaching – reading from the Bible and allowing our reading to inform our thinking.

My hope is that by doing intentional actions, such as reading from the Bible and sharing Holy Communion, we draw closer to God.

God bless you.

From Rev Richard Finch

Contemplating Prayer

Open my eyes that I may see wonderful things in your law.

Psalm 119v18

Recently we have been thinking of the holy habit of Biblical Teaching. Psalm 119 has many references to the bible. In verse 111-112 the psalmist writes, “Your statutes are my heritage forever; they are the joy of my heart. My heart is set on keeping your decrees to the very end.

The word ‘heritage’ makes me think of attitudes and messages handed down to us by parents and significant others. For example, many times when I hang the washing out I can hear my Mum’s voice in my head, saying, “Hang it from the strongest part, Pauline.” Most of us took in messages as children and young people, which have helped us keep ourselves safe, equipped us to relate to others and have fun in appropriate ways. What a bonus if they also fostered within us, a love for the Lord.

As Christians, whatever our background, we can delight in having a relationship with a loving Heavenly Father, and give space in our hearts and minds to ponder over words which encourage and guide us. The psalmist wrote in Psalm 119 verse 11 “ I have hidden your word in my heart, that I might not sin against you.” Not only did he read Scripture, but he meditated upon it, prayerfully and thoughtfully considering what he had read.

Again, we may read of the psalmist being encouraged as he prayerfully considered God’s word. “ My eyes stay open through the watches of the night, that I may meditate on your promises,” he says in Psalm 119 verse 148. Sometimes that has the amazing effect of us storing a sentence or phrase up, which comes to mind, just when we need it, apart from being a good antidote to a sleepless night.

The Holy Spirit is the Interpreter, the one who helps us understand what we read. The psalmist asked the Lord in Psalm 119 verse 34, “Give me understanding, and I will keep your law and obey it with all my heart” So, we can ask the Holy Spirit to give us understanding and to help us to pray.

When we pray, we can use the passage of Scripture as a basis for some of our prayers. The Lord Jesus assured us that whatever we ask in his Name, that is of course, in line with his will and purpose, he will do. Praying using the words we read, such as the promises God gives to his people, is very powerful.

Jesus said, "But the Counsellor, the Holy spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you." John 14:26 We can pray that the Lord will cause the passages we read to come alive in a special way because he promises to teach us and remind us of what we have read and pondered over, by the activity of the Holy Spirit within us.

May the Lord bless us and encourage us as we develop this holy habit more and more.

ORGAN AND HARPSICHORD RECITAL

Back in May we learnt, with great disappointment that Matt, our resident church organist, would be unable to play for us for several weeks, due to work commitments.

However, Terri Roper soon found us a replacement; her piano teacher Julian Larkin, who lives in Saxmundham. Julian has very kindly played for several Sunday services now and we look forward to him joining us for a few more to come.

On Saturday 27 July Julian treated us to a recital of German and French organ and harpsichord music, starting with pieces by composers from the Baroque period and ending with works by composers of the Romantic and early 20th century eras. The afternoon, which was much enjoyed by everyone who attended, included works by Bach, Rameau, Franck and Gigout.

Thanks to everyone who supported this event, helping us to raise £168.30 for church funds, and especially to Julian for providing such wonderful music and to Terri for transporting the harpsichord to and from church. Sandra Harle

SIZEWELL AFTERNOON TEA

On Monday 15 July members of the Ladies Group descended on Sizewell to enjoy afternoon tea in Sue and Anthony Hawkes' garden. Everything was ready, the gazebo was erected and comfortable garden chairs were set out in sun and shade so everyone could choose where they wanted to sit. It was lovely to meet up with new and old friends in such a lovely setting.

The selection of savoury and sweet food which everyone had brought to share was so tasty that even a herring gull decided to try to join in the fun. We soon saw him off! Strawberries and cream were enjoyed by everybody. Thank you Sue and Anthony for your hospitality. The Ladies Group does not meet formally in August although I'm sure members will bump into each other in the town for a chat. The next meeting is the AGM on Monday 16 September, 2 15 pm in church. The programme for the next twelve months will be discussed and planned so please come ready with ideas of things you'd like to do and places you'd like to visit.

Summer Art Exhibition 'Interference'

This is the second year that St Margaret's church has hosted the Summer exhibition of art work by students of Alde Valley Academy and Avocet Academy Primary school. The title of this year's exhibition was 'Interference' - this is what happens when our preconceptions about the world around us are challenged and questioned - the students were asked to respond to the theme of 'Identity' using different materials and working processes ranging from sculpture, painting, printmaking, textiles and digital media. The primary school presented Avocets of many different designs adding greatly to the visual experience. I was amazed by the quality of the work on display.

The exhibition plays an important role in putting the students' work in the public domain. Having their work scrutinised and admired by others gives them confidence, encouragement and pride. Without the exhibition their hard work would never be seen outside the school which would be such a pity. Displaying their work in this way also counts towards the students' GCSE assessment marks. Furthermore, it provides an important opportunity for the church, the schools and the community to come together to celebrate the creative talents of our gifted young people.

I decided this year that we would make our own display boards and this has proved a great success thanks to many people who helped me. Grants from EDF energy and the Friends of Alde Valley Academy paid for the costs of the materials. Now that we have our own boards we can use them every year so the exhibition can be a permanent feature in our events calendar.

Thomas Merrett was our guest artist and opened the exhibition. Thomas is a professional artist, sculptor and teacher based in London. He spoke about his own journey in the world of art and encouraged the students to pursue their vision without compromise even though there will be challenges and hardship along the way.

I am grateful to Mr Hanger, head of art and design at Alde Valley Academy and Miss Wells of Avocet Academy for the considerable time and effort they put into displaying the work; to Mrs Harle for organising the funding for the boards and the publicity; to all who helped me make the display boards and set them up and last, but not least, to all who sat in the church during the exhibition. Thank you.

JAM SUNDAY SCHOOL

JAM Sunday School learnt about the time when the risen Jesus appeared to 7 of his disciples. The disciples were fishing on Lake

Tiberius. They had been out all night. Jesus stood at the water's edge and asked them if they had caught anything. They answered they had not caught anything. They did not recognise Jesus. Jesus told them to throw the net out on the other side of the boat. He said they will catch some. They did this and were not able to pull the net back in because they had caught so many fish. It was then that one of the disciples recognised Jesus. When they dragged the net full of big fish aboard it did not tear.

The children made some cardboard boats and cut out some paper figures of the disciples and fish and shiny gold paper for the fishing net. They glued the net and the fish on to the side of one of the boats. Linda Hawes

SUMMER FETE

Many thanks to everyone who helped in any way to make our Summer Fete on Saturday 20 July such an enjoyable and successful event. Thanks to everyone who donated items to sell, all those who ran stalls, all those who came along to spend their money and to everyone who helped to set up beforehand and/or clear up at the end. The sum of £802.75 was raised for church funds, which is £80 up on last year.

We were very pleased to be joined once again by the local Ukulele Band, who provided wonderful musical entertainment and their very colourful attire really cheered up a rather overcast afternoon. A real treat for stallholders and visitors alike!

FOLK CONCERT

Yet another fantastic folk concert!

On Saturday 29 June, Peter Roberts, our folk enthusiast, once again, arranged a wonderful evening's entertainment at St Margaret's Church.

A large audience were treated to two very different groups. The first, the Harbour Lights Trio, three local men who provided a programme of lively folk music drawn from East Anglian local traditional songs. They were followed by the Norfolk Broads, a four piece female ensemble, who sang low pitched sea shanties and folk songs in close harmony.

This very enjoyable and amusing evening raised £471 for church funds; many thanks to everyone who supported this event and especially to Peter for organising it.

Sandra

Helen, of the Norfolk Broads, said "We had a wonderful evening and felt very privileged to sing in your beautiful church. The Harbour Lights were excellent and we hope to see them again too. We would love to come back some day, and please send our thanks to everyone who came."

Rob, of the Harbour Lights, said "We enjoyed the event very much and would love to return on another occasion. The church is beautiful so it makes a very nice venue for a concert".

CITIZENS ADVICE – HERE TO HELP!

Leiston Citizens Advice gives free advice, help and support to hundreds of people throughout East Suffolk every year. We advise across a wide range of issues including benefits, debt and money, employment, housing, consumer problems, utility issues, relationships and family problems.

On an everyday basis our advisers help clients make and manage benefit applications, including Universal Credit, and advise on benefit appeals. We support and help clients through managing and dealing with their debts, and we guide clients through the issues they face when relationships break down, or they face separation or divorce. We are there to help in emergencies when people become homeless, are escaping abuse or have nothing to eat. We are also the first point of contact for people who have a consumer problem, for example, with repairs or something they have bought.

The majority of Citizens Advice advisers are trained volunteers. In our East Suffolk Leiston office volunteers have the back up of a small group of paid staff - a manager, two supervisors and a dedicated money advice specialist and assistant. Our main office is in Leiston and we hold outreach sessions in Woodbridge, Saxmundham, Aldeburgh, Wickham Market, Alderton and Framlingham. We work from GP surgeries, libraries, children's centres and community centres in an effort to reach isolated communities and address poor public transport in the rural areas of Suffolk.

Anyone who needs to contact us can drop in – no appointment necessary. Our Leiston office is open on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays between 10am and 2pm. Our outreach offices are open at different times throughout the week – for information phone 01728 832193 or check www.leistoncab.org for venues and times.

Finally, a word about Citizens Advice volunteers. Citizens Advice is always looking for new volunteers, including to help with fund-raising. If there is anyone in the parish who would like to talk to us about volunteering – there are a range of roles available, please be in touch with our Manager, Martin Jones, at bureau@leistoncab.cabnet.org.uk or give him a call on 01728-832193.

SAINT AGATHA

Saint Agatha's feast day is 5 February and she is thought to have lived in Sicily in the first half of the 3rd century. She is depicted carrying large tongs or pincers although elsewhere often seen with shears or breasts on a plate

Agatha is the patron saint of bell founders, breast cancer patients and volcanic eruptions amongst others. Like the other Saints in our window Agatha was martyred.

St. Agatha was one of the most-venerated virgin martyrs of Christian antiquity. She was born to wealthy and noble parents in Sicily. From a young age she dedicated her life to God and she resisted the advances of Quintian a Roman prefect. She was arrested and imprisoned in a brothel and suffered assaults. She was moved to prison suffered brutal torture, during which her breasts were cut off (a condition often reflected in her iconography). When in prison she famously had a vision of St. Peter the Apostle, who is said to have comforted her and healed her wounds with his prayers. She was sent to the stake, but, according to some accounts, as soon as the fire was lighted, an earthquake occurred, causing the people to insist upon her release; she then died in prison, probably in the year 251. Her skull and principal relics are at Catania.

AUGUST

*'August brings the sheaves of corn
Then the harvest home is borne'*

When I think of August it reminds me of golden corn fields, poppies, the buzz of insects amongst the many wild flowers and skylarks soaring above.

We used to walk back from Sizewell after a day on the beach, feeling the tingle of the sun on our faces and being dabbed with calamine lotion before going to bed. No sun-cream then. We had the Sunday School outing to Felixstowe – another lovely treat. We would go to the shops first then down the hill to the funfair buying sticks of rock as presents to take home. Then the wonderful tea at the Regent Hotel, which usually included a cream cake. Sometimes we had a holiday at our grandparents who lived near Henley-on-Thames. Many happy times to remember.

A few weeks ago Sandra took me, Bill and Pat to Blaxhall Church Flower Festival and Art Exhibition which was lovely. We had a nice lunch in a marquee set out in part of the churchyard. We met up with Sandra's parents for a cup of tea in their lovely garden with Bill and Sandra's dad disappearing to look at his vegetable garden and the sheep in the meadow. It was a lovely time together – another memory to look back on. That day I felt I had gone back in time, people so nice and friendly and amid the lovely countryside, it was so relaxing.

Looking back it's so nice to have such happy memories and I now thank God for every day.

A big Thank you to St Margaret's Church friends and the Ladies Group for your good wishes on our recent Diamond Wedding and the lovely bouquet of flowers presented at Gill's house after our meal at the Sizewell T Café.
